NJAMF Awards Dinner Honors Congressman Barney Frank Why-Barney-Frank-Wants-Your-Money , General Anthony Taguba, Joan Bernstein

Washington, D.C. — The National Japanese American Memorial Foundation (NJAMF), will host its 2008 Awards Dinner on April 4th to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988. Funds raised at the event will go to support the Foundation's public awareness and education programs.

In the tradition of past Awards Dinners, NJAMF will honor American leaders who represent the values and beliefs of the Foundation. The evening's honorees include Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA), who will receive the Chairman's Award for leadership. Joan Bernstein (Chair of the U.S. Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians) will receive the Award for Constitutional Rights. Finally, Major General Anthony Taguba (USA-Ret) will receive the Award for Patriotism. Secretary Norm Mineta, Congresswoman Doris Matsui (D-CA), and General Eric Shinseki (USA-Ret) will be presenting the awards.
